“ FIRST THING... I want everyone to know that Becky gave her life/heart to Jesus last week. I was there with her when this happened. Praise God!! Hallelujah!! So, I know I will see her again one day!

She was very sweet and caring! I remember when I was little and we would go to Grandma Smith's house and sometimes she would be there. I was always excited to see her. I remember later on in years, I hung out with her and the kids some. She was always smiling and full of life. My daddy said I used to go stay with them some when I was little. Becky, for whatever reason, was my ONE. She was really my daddy's 1st cousin, be we were closer in age. I was so glad when Christy found me of fb, after many years and I was able to go see her. Christy gave her a great big birthday party for her 56th(?) birthday, I got to go and then I got to go last week and see her.

Guys,
Prayers for you all! As much as I loved my Becky, It is not the same as y'all losing a mother. I love you guys!
