“ I am so very sorry for the loss of your momma. I didn't know Billie Mae, but Sandy shared many wonderful stories of her momma and family. May the Lord keep you strong especially at this time. You are in my thoughts and prayers. Take care. Love, Betty Milburn, Chatham, Ontario, Canada

Maw-maw,

Words cannot express the impression that your life had on my own. You were my best friend when that's what I needed you to be. You were my biggest critic when I deserved to hear the painful truth. You were the wisest and most prudent advisor to ever be so opinionated and one-sided. You were the sweetest woman in the world to have a serious mean streak. You taught me so much about life and helped me find my own dreams.

I will miss you so much. What you've given me will guide me through the rest of my days. I will carry your strength within me and I will not fear the future, as it will bring me closer to you. Your laugh, your smile, your love will warm me from the cold. I will think of our time together and be thankful to have had so much time with you to reflect upon.

You live on in me Maw-maw, and many others who owe so much of themselves to you.

Christmas at your house was the highlight of my year; this one and going forward I will celebrate you with joyful tears.

I may miss you forever but I will love you eternally.
Until we meet again you'll be in my thoughts and dreams.

Rest in Peace Maw-maw.
We love you so much.
