“ My deepest condolences to Shea and Zion and MJ. Know that a fathers love will live on forever even if he's not there physically. God give you strength and peace in your time of mourning. I choose the rose colored candle because that was the closest to his favorite Viking purple. RIP Reggie

“ I prayed for a long time for God to find a man for Shea, someone who would love her and for whom she would love also. Shea called me one day and said she met a man in the neighborhood who was going to help her fix her house. She fell for him and Visa versa.

I couldn't wait to meet the man who she said his name was Reggie.

When I met him he had a big smile on his face and then we shook each others hand.

I noticed that he had a hand like mine, broken and mangled, then he hugged me hard and I knew then that God had answered my prayer.

We all will miss you Reggie. May you find happiness with Isaiah. Give him a big kiss from us. You get to meet my son Sam. I love you all.

“ My dearest brother Reggie, I miss you with all of my heart and soul. I am trying to find comfort in knowing that you are with your beloved son Isiah and now the two of you are watching over those of us still here on earth. Your passing was much too quick, but the impact of your life will carry on through you family and friends for decades to come.

I promise to make sure that Zion and MJ know what a wonderful person their father was and how much you loved your entire family. I will be sure to share stories of your mischievous childhood as well as all the good things you did. Through them you will continue to live on in so many ways.

I will think of you and miss you until we are reunited again. I love you Reggie. May God hold you close.

Your brother,

Robert C. Chambers
